

Thomas deWit, P.E.
Mechanical Engineer

Mr. deWit has been involved in the design of heating, ventilating, air conditioning, plumbing, geothermal heat pump, energy recovery and automatic temperature control systems. Mr. deWit's experience includes educational facilities, medical facilities, office buildings, churches, manufacturing facilities, restaurants, and swimming pools. His computer experience includes building heat gain/heat loss calculation, building thermal analysis relating to building energy codes, modeling HVAC systems for energy and economic analysis, AutoCad® and Revit®.

EDUCATION:

BSME, Minnesota State University, Mankato, MN 2010

REGISTRATION:

South Dakota

EXPERIENCE:

2010 – Present	Associated Consulting Engineering, Inc. – Sioux Falls, SD
2007 – 2010	Associated Consulting Engineering, Inc. – Sioux Falls, SD (Intern)

PROFESSIONAL INVOLVEMENTS:

American Society of Heating, Refrigerating & Air Conditioning Engineers